Please help Pierce County Library make Summer Reading even better

People who participated in Summer Reading 2014 at Pierce County Library are invited to share their experiences and ideas to help make the program even better. Now through Friday, Sept. 12, the library would like residents to respond to a survey to help plan for Summer Reading 2015.

Adults, youth and parents of children who participated in Summer Reading have a choice between completing the online Summer Reading survey and a paper survey available at all Pierce County Libraries

Teens who participated in the online Teen Summer Challenge are asked to complete the online Teen Summer Challenge survey.

Residents are taking advantage of a wide selection of reading materials and more than 450 free events during Pierce County Library's summer reading program. The library provides the largest free summer learning opportunity available in the county.
