PIERCE COUNTY, Washington – During the Pierce County Library System’s upgrade to its online systems, access will be limited to online services from Wednesday, Nov. 3, 7:30 p.m. – Thursday, Nov. 4, 1 p.m.

Throughout the upgrade, expect disrupted or limited access to the Library’s online systems, including:

- Library catalog
- Book Club Kits
- E-sources
- Online card registration
- E-books and online audiobooks available through OverDrive and Libby
- Computer reservations
- Downloadable magazines
- Books and materials renewal by phone
- Shoutbomb
- Library Curbside online reservation system

The system upgrade includes improvements to the Library’s online catalog, including the option to accept cookies when browsing, and the option to select your preferred location to pick up library materials.

About Pierce County Library System
The nationally acclaimed Pierce County Library System serves 620,000 people throughout Pierce County with 20 libraries and online services. The system is the fourth largest in the state and property taxes are the main funding source. People may choose from more than one million books, e-books, audiobooks, movies and other materials. Pierce County Library is committed to directing services in three primary areas: learning, enjoyment and community connection. Its services and programs spark success for Pierce County residents. More than 2 million people visit Pierce County Libraries each year. The Library provides services and programs directly to people in adult care facilities, people who are homebound, and to children in childcare centers and schools. Pierce County Libraries are located at Anderson Island, Bonney Lake, Buckley, DuPont, Eatonville, Fife, Gig Harbor, Graham, Key Center, Lakewood, Milton/Edgewood, Orting, Parkland/Spanaway, Pierce County Library Administrative Center, South Hill, Steilacoom, Summit, Sumner, Tillicum and University Place. Pierce County Library is an independent municipal corporation and operates as a junior taxing district.
