Read with a Daffodil Princess at the Pierce County Library System

PIERCE COUNTY, Washington – Local royalty—Daffodil Princesses—will read stories to children at the Pierce County Library System on Saturday, Feb. 22, Saturday, Feb. 29, Saturday, March 7, and Saturday, March 14. Princesses will read stories, talk with children, and be available for photos at 15 libraries.

“Kids love the opportunity to engage with and listen to our local royalty,” said Pierce County Library Executive Director Georgia Lomax. “Everyone has the chance to feel like a princess!”

About Pierce County Library System
The nationally acclaimed Pierce County Library System serves 614,000 people throughout Pierce County with 20 libraries and online services. The system is the fourth largest in the state and is funded primarily through property taxes. People may choose from 1.1 million books, movies and other materials as well as nearly half a million online/downloadable materials. Pierce County Library is committed to directing services in three primary areas: learning, enjoyment and community connection. Its services and programs spark success for Pierce County residents. More than 2 million people visit Pierce County Libraries each year. The Library provides services and programs directly to people in adult care facilities or who are homebound, and to children in child care centers and schools. Pierce County Libraries are located at the Pierce County Library Administrative Center, Anderson Island, Bonney Lake, Buckley, DuPont, Eatonville, Fife, Gig Harbor, Graham, Key Center, Lakewood, Milton/Edgewood, Orting, Parkland/Spanaway, South Hill, Steilacoom, Summit, Sumner, Tillicum and University Place. Pierce County Library is an independent municipal corporation and operates as a junior taxing district.
