

free event

Fun-tastic Folktales

"Stories have a magical way of showing us the beauty of each other's culture and the beauty within ourselves. Through my stories I celebrate our similarities—values, emotions, experiences. I also use stories to celebrate our differences—stories as a bridge from culture to culture."

~ Eva Abram

Saturday, Feb. 25
2 p.m.

Ages 5 and up.

Acclaimed storyteller Eva Abram brings African-American folktales and legends to life in celebration of Black History Month.

Why I Tell

I tell because I believe human beings need connection. • I tell to contribute positivity to our human existence. • I tell to encourage. • I tell because of the wonderful people I meet.

Lakewood Pierce County Library

6300 Wildaire Road S.W. 98499 • 253-548-3302

Pierce County Library System

Information & Imagination

piercecountylibrary.org

Washington Relay TTY 711

Free event sponsored by FRIENDS of Lakewood Library

1/17 (450/6)