Milton/Edgewood Pierce County Library closed Wednesday, Aug. 10

PIERCE COUNTY, Washington – The Milton/Edgewood Pierce County Library is closed today, Wednesday, Aug. 10, due to a power outage. Power is restored at the Fife Pierce County Library, which is open until 5 p.m.

Please watch www.piercecountylibrary.org for updates. Due to storms, some outdoor classes and events may be canceled.

As always, the Library’s online services are open at www.piercecountylibrary.org, featuring online e-books, audiobooks, videos and magazines as well as other services and resources.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

About Pierce County Library System
The nationally acclaimed Pierce County Library System serves 634,000 people throughout Pierce County with 19 libraries and online services. The system is the fourth largest in the state and property taxes are the main funding source. People may choose from more than one million books, e-books, audiobooks, movies and other materials. Pierce County Library is committed to directing services in three primary areas: learning, enjoyment and community connection. Its services and programs spark success for Pierce County residents. More than 2 million people visit Pierce County Libraries each year. The Library provides services and programs directly to people in adult care facilities, people who are homebound, and to children in childcare centers and schools. Pierce County Libraries are located at Anderson Island, Bonney Lake, Buckley, DuPont, Eatonville, Fife, Gig Harbor, Graham, Key Center, Lakewood, Milton/Edgewood, Orting, Parkland/Spanaway, South Hill, Steilacoom, Summit, Sumner, Tillicum and University Place. Pierce County Library is an independent municipal corporation and operates as a junior taxing district.
