			 1 Let your child choose a topic and research it in books or on the internet.	 2 If possible, visit a park and play on the playground there together.	 3 Together, read a book about your child's favorite animal.	 4 Screen blackout day! Read books, go on an outing, or play games together.
 5 Draw the outline of a shape. Pour cereal into a bowl and encourage your child to place cereal pieces inside the shape.	Math  6 Introduce to your child the concept of "pairs". Pull out shoes and socks to show pairs.	 7 Talk with your child about a teacher that you had that made a difference for you.	 8 Pile up pillows on a bed and spend some time reading together.	 9 Brainstorm as many words as you can that rhyme with "Play".	 10 Create a quiet box—fill it with markers, pencils, glue, paper, yarn, buttons, etc. for quiet, creative times.	11 Visit the Library together
 12 Look at some labels on cans or boxed food and talk about the purpose of labels.	 13 Pull out some interesting clothing and play dress up together.	 14 Play some music and dance together. Maybe use some of the dress up from yesterday.	 15 Gather groups of small items—buttons, beans, paper clips, etc. Mix them all together and encourage your child to sort them into like items.	 16 Ask your child to tell you everything he/she can think of about his/her best friend.	 17 Play outside today. If there are clouds in the sky—spend time lying on your backs looking at them.	 18 Together, look in a mirror and make faces that demonstrate feelings. Talk about them.
 19 Create a cave or play space inside or outside and spend time playing together.	 20 Screen blackout day! Read books, go on an outing, or play games together.	 21 At bedtime tonight, ask your child what happy or funny things happened today.	 22 Act out some nursery rhymes together.	Math  23 Roll some dice and spend time counting together.	 24 Together, read a book that rhymes.	25 Visit the Library together
 26 Ask your child, "If you had wings, where would you fly?"	 27 Cut pieces of yarn or string into short lengths. Pour glue onto a piece of paper or cardboard and encourage your child to create a yarn collage.	 28 Talk together about what makes someone a good friend.	 29 Spend some time outside digging in dirt if possible.	 30 Engage your child in a discussion of their favorite activity from this month.
