PIerce County Library System’s curbside service Friday, Sept. 18

PIerce COUNTY, Washington – With the forecast for continued unhealthy air from wildfire smoke today, Friday, Sept. 18, the Pierce County Library System plans to offer curbside service to pick up books, movies and other items at its 18 Library Curbside locations by phone appointments during the following hours.

At Buckley, DuPont, Eatonville, Fife, Orting, Steilacoom and Tillicum Pierce County Libraries, get service from 12 to 4 p.m. today. Call the library by 11:30 a.m. for a curbside appointment for today. At Bonney Lake, Gig Harbor, Graham, Key Center, Lakewood, Milton/Edgewood, Parkland/Spanaway, South Hill, Summit, Sumner and University Place Pierce County Libraries, get service from 2 to 6 p.m. today. Call the library by 1:30 p.m. for a curbside appointment for today.

Staff will have customers’ curbside orders ready, bagged and on a table for pick up outside the front doors of the library. Look for reserved items by your last name, first name and last four digits of your library card number.

The Pierce County Library will continue to monitor air quality at all locations. Please watch the Library’s website for updates to curbside service.

Contact 253-548-3300 or webref@pcls.us with questions or for ideas on what to read next. As always, the Library’s online services are open featuring downloadable e-books, audiobooks and magazines as well as other services and resources.
