

FREE events

SUMNER

A Creative Community

Creation to Donation All-Day Sewing Event

Saturday, Nov. 14

10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. + 1-3 p.m.

Sewers of all skill levels are invited to give back to our community. Work alongside volunteer instructors to create simple, useful items to donate to a local charity. All supplies and equipment provided.

Registration required online at piercesumnerlibrary.org/calendar

Presented in partnership with the Sumner-Bonney Lake Family Center and the Pierce County Clothing and Textile Advisors.

Coloring for Grown-Ups

Sunday, Dec. 6, 1-4 p.m.

Coloring books aren't just for kids anymore. We've stocked our reading room with pages from popular adult coloring books for you to explore this new trend.

The Art of Zentangle®

Thursday, Jan. 7, 1-3 p.m.

Create beautiful images by drawing structured patterns. Mariet O'Leary, a certified Zentangle teacher, shares this new crafting method that is easy to learn and helps you relax and relieve stress.

Registration required online at piercesumnerlibrary.org/calendar

Craft Lab

Thursdays, Jan. 14 + Feb 18

4:30-6 p.m.

Drop in for a new craft project. Experiment with new techniques and supplies. All ages welcome. Adult assistance required for younger children.

Painting Demonstrations

Saturday, Feb. 13, 1-2 p.m.

Visiting artist Lee Killmer

Saturday, Feb. 20, 1-2 p.m.

Visiting artist Mary Ann Young

Watch and learn from local artists as they practice their craft in our reading room.

Ask about painting techniques and resources, or pick up a brush and give it a try.

Presented in partnership with the Mountain Valley Arts group.

Sumner Pierce County Library

1116 Fryar Ave. 98390 • 253-548-3306